CITY WON OUT.

In the suit in the circuit court of Claude S. Hazelrigg and E. C. O'Rear against the city of Frankfort, on Tuesday, for damages to the first named personally and to Judge O'Rear for destruction of a survey and injury to a fine horse, occasioned by a lot of rock being left in the middle of Main street, South Side, where there was no light, causing the overturning of the vehicle, destroying the vehicle, throwing Hazelrigg out and bruising him up, the horse running away and being injured thereby, the court ordered a peremptory injunction in favor of the city.

Judge Ben G. Williams was the attorney for the plaintiffs and Messrs VanWinkle and Greene represented the defendant.

TUESDAY MORNING'S BLAZE.

At 10 o'clock, on Tuesday morning, an alarm from box 14 called the department to the residence of Officer Z. T. Thomason, on Logan street, where a defective flue had set fire to the roof of the dwelling.

Officer Thomason had the fire under control with a garden hose when the department arrived.

The loss will amount to about $75, covered by insurance.

NEW LETTER CARRIER.

Under orders from the Postal Department and at the special request of Capt. E. M. Drane, our efficient Postmaster, there has been another carrier detailed for work on the South Side, in this city, and to assist in making extra collections.

Mr. Clay Smith, a clerk in the office, has been detailed for this work.

The order went into effect on April 17th.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Digests what you eat.

NATIONAL BANKS WON.

On Monday last, in the U. S. Supreme Court at Washington City, the case of the City of Covington against some National Banks of that city, for back taxes on the shares of stock in said banks, the court held that the banks were not liable.

Judge J. H. Hazelrigg and Judge Ira Julian were of counsel for the city.

The matter is of considerable importance to many of our citizens who own stock in the State National Bank and the National Branch Bank of Kentucky.

MINTS CLOSED TO FREE COINAGE.

The mints of Mexico are now closed to the free coinage of silver. This country has always been the home of the free silver idea.

PRIVATE SECRETARY TO REPORTER COURT OF APPEALS.

Miss Nannie Burkley, of Mt. Sterling, has been appointed private secretary and stenographer to Judge T. R. McBeath, Reporter of the Court of Appeals.

TO HOLD FOUR YEARS.

The Court of Appeals decided, on Tuesday, that the Auditor's Agents were entitled to hold their offices each for the term of four years.

RECOVERED $7,000.

In the circuit court, on Saturday, the jury in the case of T. B. Brightwell v. The Geo. T. Stagg Co., returned a verdict of $7,000 damages for Brightwell. Brightwell was hurt while employed as a meal room man at the distillery of this company.

FINED $50.

It will be remembered that City Marshal Coleman S. Whitehead and Mr. Will Hayden became involved in trouble in October last, during which Marshal Whitehead fired a shot at Mr. Hayden, hitting him squarely in the stomach, but, luckily, the ball did not enter the cavity.

Marshal Whitehead was tried in the circuit court, on Monday, and was fined $50 and costs.

RETIREES FROM ACTIVE BUSINESS LIFE.

Mr. Pat Newman, Sr., after a business career of over forty years, has retired from the grocery business. Mr. Newman is a painstaking and careful businessman and retires after an honorable career. He has also represented his ward several times in the City Council with credit to himself.

PLANS TO GET RICH

Are often frustrated by sudden break-down, due to dyspepsia or constipation. Brace up and take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They take out the materials which are clogging your energies, and give you a new start. Cure headache and dizziness too. At all drug-gists, 25c, guaranteed.

INDICTED.

Mayor Darnell, City Engineer Robt. A. Frazier and The Frankfort and Versailles Traction Co. were indicted by the grand jury for destroying three shade trees in front of the City School buildings, as noted in our last week's paper.

The penalty is $500 fine in each case.

The trespass came near causing serious trouble at the time of its occurrence.

CLIMATIC CURES.

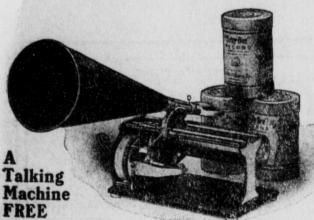

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, exercise and German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and fits of delirium due to coughing, the greatest sufferer and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warm climate, you will find that of the thousands of cases there the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drug-gists.

QUANTILLIS.

Open an apple, a few seed find thee. Then open one of them, what do you see?

Only a tiny bit of white paste there. And yet it is the germ of a great tree.

There is an insect in Ocean's domain Which the unaided eye can scarcely see. And yet scientists say, it is very plain They rear islands from depths of sea.

When I have strayed along the sloping beach, I've often thought, how small a grain of sand! Collectively it miles and miles, till they reach And form the great ocean's unending strand.

Then in the desert, where the fierce winds sweep, A little thing stops, on its bosom bare, And each succeeding gale, adds to the heap, Until in time, you find a mountain there.

Just a drop of dew, in the early morn, Shining on the bosom of a flower, When it is dried by sun's rays, it is gone.

To become part of a refreshing shower.

A pool of water, just a foot or two, lying still with its bosom bare, In its depths can be seen, it is true, The expanse of the sky, reflected there.

SUNDAY'S BLIZZARD.

When our citizens awoke, on Sunday morning, they were greeted with a snow storm of moderate dimensions, but which ceased between 6 and 7 o'clock, but about 7:30 o'clock, the clouds gathered so thickly that it became very dark and it was necessary to light the gas in order to see. Then the snow came in a veritable blizzard, so thick that it was almost impossible to see across the streets. Luckily it only continued for about half an hour, but, being a very wet snow, it had become about an inch thick on the houses and the ground.

Soon after the clouds were driven away and the sun shone out clear and warm and the "beautiful" disappeared as if by magic.

By 10 o'clock a furious wind arose and blew the whole day through, only lulling after night-fall.

The weather was pretty cold and great fears were felt for the safety of the fruit and early gardens, but the clouds remained most of the night and no frost fell.

It remained quite cool for a day or so, but those who know say that no material damage was done in this immediate section, although they say that if fifty per cent. of the blossoms were killed, there would still be an abundance of fruit left.

ENTERPRISING CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

After a long illness, Mr. Lew. G. Choate, proprietor of the Frankfort Planing Mills, passed away on Wednesday afternoon, aged about 50 years.

Mr. Choate was a quiet, retiring, but industrious and enterprising business man. Possessed of a splendid physique and iron constitution, he withstood the ravages of disease with marvelous tenacity.

He had been engaged in the planing mill business for a number of years, and until forced to yield to disease, still prosecuted it.

He leaves a wife and six children, besides a wide circle of friends, to mourn the loss of a tender and loving father, a devoted husband and an upright man.

Mr. Choate was a member of the Macabees.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Father T. S. Major from the Church of the Good Shepherd, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and were largely attended.

The interment was in the Catholic Cemetery.

A NEW DEPOT ASSURED.

The plans for the new union depot have been drawn by the architects of the L. & N. R. R. Co., and will be submitted to the City Council on Monday night next. They are said to comprise a very handsome and commodious building, which will be a credit to the city and the road.

Mankind would have to invent milk. Milk is Nature's emulsion—butter put in shape for digestion. Cod liver oil is extremely nourishing, but it has to be emulsified before we can digest it.

Scott's Emulsion

combines the best oil with the valuable hypophosphites so that it is easy to digest and does far more good than the oil alone could. That makes Scott's Emulsion the most strengthening, nourishing food—medicine in the world.

Worry

Almost Unnerved Me—Heart Pains.

Short of Breath. Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

"I have been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in this regard today. My several years of health suffered with my heart, and nothing had become short and difficult at times, short, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied by fluttering would make me feel faint and weak, and least moment of mental worry would almost unnerves me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse, all the time, and after trying many remedies, I was induced to give your remedy a trial. I was relieved the second day, and the pain subsided, and all symptoms were removed and have never shown signs of returning."—Rev. GEO. W. KIRACOFF, Chincoteague, Va.

There are many closely resemble those of heart disease, common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the common nervous disorders all have been affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weak-need nerves, as tired feeling, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is easily excited, etc., April 1905.

If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a doubt.

All druggists sell and guarantee first bottle Dr. Miles' Remedies. Send for free book on Nervous and Heart Disease. Address Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

BUSY LIFE ENDS.

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Mr. W. C. Lutkemeier, the stirring and enterprising dry goods merchant, answered the last summons, after several weeks' sickness, aged 52 years.

Mr. Lutkemeier came to this city direct from Germany some 38 years ago. He was an all-around business man and gentleman, and had made a host of friends by his probity and sterling worth.

He had been in business in the building he occupied at the time of his death 28 years, and had stood deservedly high.

He had served as a City Councilman and as a member of the Board of Education, being the Secretary of that body at the time of his departure.

He leaves a wife and seven children (Capt. Wm. C. Jr., John, Harry, Lizzie, Eva, Florence and Carrie), one sister and a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

By frugality and industry he had earned a competence.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Father T. S. Major from the Church of the Good Shepherd, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and were largely attended.

The interment was in the Catholic Cemetery.

A NEW DEPOT ASSURED.

The plans for the new union depot have been drawn by the architects of the L. & N. R. R. Co., and will be submitted to the City Council on Monday night next. They are said to comprise a very handsome and commodious building, which will be a credit to the city and the road.

WILL GIVE A BAZAAR.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church will give a Bazaar, on Friday, May 5th, in the lecture room of that church. The admission will be 10 cents; ices and cakes, 25 cents.

NARROW ESCAPE.

While Mr. J. L. Wasson was driving his two-horse team around the boulevard, on Tuesday, the horses became unmanageable and backed over the bank, near the Devil's Hollow bridge.

Mr. Wasson was considerably bruised and shaken up, the horses were likewise bruised and cut about the legs, and the wagon smashed.

It was a lucky escape for Mr. Wasson.

The little folks love Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to taste; perfectly harmless; positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.

WAYSIDE TALES.

Wayside Tales for April has an unusually bright and attractive cover; one that is also truly significant of the editorial policy of the magazine, Real Life and News in Story Form." One seems to be looking through two gothic cathedral windows through one of which is seen a solemn brown monk, with cross and cowl, while through the other peers a grinning jester in motley garb and cap and bells. The whole is of course typical of the two side of life, the comic and the serious, the lively and the severe; and the contents of the magazine are about equally divided between the two. For the serious minded there is an able article on "The Religion of Democracy" by Marguerite Warren Springer; Chief Francis O'Neill writes of "What Science has Done for the Police;" and Gertrude M. Murdoch contributes a sensational article on "The School Boards and the School Book Trust." On the other hand there is a delightful story by George Elmer McCollough "A Tramp's Last Ditch," and one by Julia Truett Bishop, "A Dead Rose;" Major Ennis continues his amusing tales of army life; and Snifsky, the irresistible, gives his impressions of the theatres of New York and Chicago. On all stands, 10c.

The April number of Wayside Tales, just out, is profusely and beautifully illustrated. The original Aubrey Beardsley drawings are reproduced with Oscar Wilde's "Salomé," with it continued in this issue, and the fiction is illustrated by Earl Shearer and other leading artists. The short stories this month are unusually clever, particularly "A Dead Rose," by Julia Truett Bishop, "A Tramp's Last Ditch," by George Elmer McCollough, and "Pearl—A Story of the Occult," by T. A. Bland. For the serious minded there are a number of able and scholarly articles by foremost thinkers and writers of the day, and Lewis Worthington Smith's beautiful "Night and the Crowd" is a literary gem of the first water. At all stands, 10c.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION.

For the convenience and comfort of delegates and visitors to the Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Kansas City, Mo., May 11-17th, the Southern Railway has made arrangements to run Special Pullman Sleepers through to Kansas City without change, leaving Louisville 10:15 p. m., Tuesday, May 9th, and it is expected that a through sleeper will also be run from Lexington, leaving that point at 5:30 p. m. Following is a partial list of those who will be in the party:

Dr. Carter Helm Jones, Dr. Geo. E. Gates, Dr. E. Y. Mullins, Dr. W. W. Hamilton, Dr. J. R. Sampson, Dr. J. B. Marvin, Dr. Geo. W. Clark, Dr. T. J. Watts, Mrs. S. F. Wood, Representative Woman's Missionary Union, Louisville; Dr. Preston Blake, Dr. W. P. Hines, Dr. W. H. Felix, Capt. J. R. Howard, Lexington; Dr. J. J. Taylor, Rev. G. W. Angabrite, Georgetown; Rev. T. H. Plemons, Cynthia; Dr. B. Bailey, J. A. Middleton, Shively.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who may be going to Kansas City to the Convention, or to visit friends, to join this party. In case there is a sufficient number not desiring sleeping car accommodation a free reclining chair car or coach will be run through without change to Kansas City. These arrangements will afford members of this party every comfort and convenience, and will make unnecessary any change of cars en route.

The route will be via the Southern Railway to St. Louis and thence via the Missouri Pacific Railway to Kansas City. At St. Louis these special cars will be consolidated with those carrying the Tennessee delegation, headed by Dr. Lausung Burrows, of Nashville, and the entire train will then be handled by special service to Kansas City, making but few stops. This train the "Southern Baptist Special" will leave St. Louis at 9:30 a. m. and arrive at Kansas City at 5:45 p. m. thus making a daylight run through picture-sque Missouri, along the banks of the Missouri and Meramec rivers, passing through Jefferson City (the Capitol), Sedalia, Warrensburg and other thriving cities of the great State.

A rate of one fare plus fifty (50) cents for the round trip will be made, rate from Louisville being $16.00.

Tickets will be sold May 7th to 11th, inclusive, with return limited to May 23d. A fee of 25 cents will be charged for validating tickets at Kansas City.

A stop-over at St. Louis will be permitted on return trip within final limit by deposit of ticket with Joint Agent, Union Station, St. Louis, immediately upon arrival and payment of fee of fifty (50) cents, to enable you to attend the National Baptist Anniversary, May 14-15th.

Persons desiring to join this party should make application, accompanied by remittance for space in sleepers, to H. C. King, City Ticket Agent, Southern Ry., Lexington, Ky., or A. R. Cook, City Ticket Agent, Southern Ry., 284 Fourth Ave., Louisville, Ky., who will acknowledge receipt and advise promptly location of berth. Rate for double berth from Lexington to Kansas City, $8.50; from Louisville, $8.00. 28th May 10.

A SPLENDID FIELD.

Among the famous races which will be run at Lexington during the spring meeting, May 8th to 9th, perhaps the most interesting is the Distillers Handicap which comes on Monday, May 7th, for which the best field of handicap horses will start that ever contested a stake in the West or South. Broomstick, winner of the Brighton Handicap last year and the holder of the world's record for a mile and a quarter; Alan-a-Dale, the horse entitled to the present world's record at a mile; Colonial Girl, winner of the Fifty Thousand Dollar World's Fair Handicap last year; English Lad, the best three-year-old in the West last year; Woodson and Rapid-Water, respectively second and third in the American Derby last year; McChesney considered two years ago, with Waterboy, the best horse is America; Dick Welles, holder of the world's record at a mile; Bad News, second and in the Saratoga Handicap last year; Witful, Dalvay, First Mason, Six Shooter, Burleigh, Price Silverwing and a number of others scarcely less famous are all eligible to this great stake. But splendid as is this list, it does not out-class the fields eligible to the other stakes during the Lexington meeting. That meeting promises to be, from every standpoint, the best race meeting ever held in the South and the people in central Kentucky will doubtless lend it large patronage. Reduced rates will be offered on all railroads.

DOING FINE WORK.

Judge W. L. Jett has secured pay for Confederate soldiers and their widows for horses taken from them after surrender, and in violation of the terms agreed upon between Generals Grant and Lee as follows: James Downey, Harp, Ky., $185; A. Harper, Polk Grove, Ky., $185; Sam Robinson and D. B. Worsham, Confederate Home, $185 each, and W. A. Snoot, Falm, Ky., $185. Judge Jett has heretofore secured pay for nine horses and has sixteen claims pending.

NOW IN CALIFORNIA.

We learn from a letter received from him, that Mr. A. G. Morris (Chip) and family have moved from Walters, Oklahoma, to Buena Park, Cal., which is only eight miles from the Pacific Ocean and 20 miles out of Los Angeles, Cal. They are nicely and comfortably located and send their regards to all their friends in the old home town.

EFFICIENT OFFICER AND SPLENDID GENTLEMAN DIES.

We regret exceedingly to announce that Hon. Edward Daum, Commonwealth's Attorney of Marion-Bracken Judicial District, died at his home in Brooksville on Friday.

Mr. Daum was an efficient officer and an all-around gentleman. He possesses the distinction of never having been defeated for any office for which he offered. He was elected State Senator and Commonwealth's Attorney several times in districts in which his party was in a large minority.

ALL THE MONEY IN CALIFORNIA

Is not from its gold fields. Fortunes are made from the wheat and the fruit farms. Why not investigate the chances there? ANOTHER MAN LOSES OUT.

On Friday afternoon Judge R. L. Stout made the same ruling in the Lucas-Bridges suit over the Democratic nomination for Jailer that he did in the Taylor-Johnson case, and that was that he did not have jurisdiction to order a recount of the ballots. An appeal was at once taken.

NEAT AND TASTEFUL IMPROVEMENT.

Under orders from Adjutant-General Haly the lot surrounding the State Arsenal is being tilled and the front of same sodded, together with other improvements. We are glad to note this, and would suggest that if the building itself should be restored to its original slate or stone color by painting it would be still better.

THANKS.

We have been placed under obligations to our friend, Mr. J. H. Cutler, who is now stopping at the Hotel Manhattan, Pensacola, Fla., for a file of recent Pensacola papers. He will please accept our thanks.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally practiced in this form: "Do it to-day!" This is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for to-day, and rely entirely on Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold and its continuance will be terminated. No matter how desperate your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25¢ regular size, 75¢ at all drugists. 1lyr.

TAU BETA PI FRATERNITY.

The Alpha of Kentucky, Tau Beta Pi Fraternity will entertain with a supper this evening at Hughes' restaurant in honor of the four new members to be taken into the ranks, those who have gained honor marks in the State College Engineering Department at the last examinations: W. F. Downing, F. C. Mahan, A. T. Lewis, D. B. Bryan, and will graduate in '06.

This is a strictly engineering fraternity and only those can win membership who make this honor standing in their classes.

For the event of this evening the most odd and attractive menu cards have been prepared. They are in design of the badge of the Tau Beta Pi, were made at State College in the artistic blue print style and consist of four leaves fastened together with an eyelet.

On the front leaf is "Alpha of Kentucky," April 14, 1905; on the second, "The Fellows"; F. P. Anderson, J. P. Brooks, J. R. Johnson, J. T. Faig, A. M. Wilson, T. W. Freeman, A. Akin, C. W. Ham, J. F. Shipp, L. E. Baumgarten, K. L. Dietrich, E. B. Stiles, H. L. Prather, J. M. Coons, W. C. Kelly, H. M. West, C. A. Bickel, M. W. Powell, H. N. Wood, R. Wiley, W. F. Downing, F. C. Mahan, A. T. The Alpha of Kentucky of the Tau Beta Pi Fraternity will give a supper this evening at Hughes', notice of which appears in another part of the paper. This is one of the most interesting of the fraternities and to become a member means quite a great deal to the student of engineering.—Lexington Leader, April 14.

The above clipping is one of interest in the fact that the students, who are selected by the faculty for admission to this fraternity for honors alone, two are Franklin county boys—R. Wiley and Alex. T. Lewis. This is a very high compliment and greatly valued by the student body.

CITY SCHOOL CLOSED.

In respect to the memory of Mr. W. C. Lutkemeier, member of the Board of Education, the City Schools were closed on yesterday.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

The Frankfort Driving Park was visited by a very destructive fire, at 12:30 o'clock on Thursday night. The stables were in a furious blaze when the alarm was turned in, which was done by a passing countryman. The stables were beyond the city limits and away from the lines of water protection. However, when the alarm came from box 27 the department went out in the hopes of helping to save some of the buildings. The stable buildings were burned, but there were some fourteen horses in training which were destroyed, making the loss a very heavy one.

Owing to the very inflammable nature of the buildings, it was impossible to save any part, the heat being too great to allow a near approach by the firemen.

The flames soon burned out and by the hour we write, to whom the engine companies had gathered whether there was any insurance.

Generally, however, in such cases, there is little or no insurance carried.

THE HARGIS TRIAL.

The trial of Judge James Hargis, county judge of Breathitt county, for conspiring to cause the assassination of James Cockrell, was commenced on Monday last, in the Fayette Circuit Court, the jury having finally been obtained, after great difficulty.

There are a number of very sensational things, which have occurred, during the preliminary work.

The evidence, so far as heard, is of an astounding and horrible character. Whether, however, it can be overcome by the defense, is to be seen. Until the trial is over, we reserve any further comment.

We have lots more like it. Coleman Caf, Janitor at the State House, residence 441 Main street, says: "I received great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. For a long time, I was embarrassed during the day and annoyed at night by the too frequent action of the kidney secretions. The doctor pronounced my trouble diabetes, and although they treated me I was unable to get permanent relief.

By a friend I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. W. Gayle's drug store. On taking them only a short time I felt great improvement, and finally the whole trouble was removed. I also used Doan's Ointment for Eczema which I had for a long time on one of my legs about the skin. The constant irritation at times drove me wild. Despite the use of preparation after preparation nothing helped me until by good fortune I heard of Doan's Ointment and procured a box. This remedy gave me quick and positive relief, and proved satisfactory in every respect."

THE ROUNDABOUT'S DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, EDUCATION, LITERATURE.

To Be Carefully Read and Considered!!

Ignorance is one of the hardest things with which to contend or strive against in this existence, for it handicaps every hope, every effort; and even puts a stumbling block in the way of ambition; but indolence is a greater evil! A greater drawback to the boy or girl starting out in the race for wealth, happiness, and knowledge.

All human experience testifies to the truth of the assertion that industry drives every aim and every aspiration to success. The lives of our most renowned men and women, the history of every great achievement—in whatever field of labor—proves that persevering energy has been the secret of success. Indolence is a condition, or a habit, whatever one may call it, that will dwarf the brightest intellect, and paralyze every effort or attempt to reach the highest attainment. Indolence may be a constitutional disability. Some children, but not many, are born with a debility or "tired feeling," once called laziness, but such children are mentally as well as physically diseased, and the ailment, if not early arrested, will, in time, become chronic, so fixed and habitual as to become the controlling element in the man. It does not follow that a lazy boy will make a lazy man, but I have never known an indolent man who had not been, once upon a time, an idle, careless, indifferent, indolent boy. In most cases, however, indolence is the result of habit and the want of timely training in the avenues of industry, as well as a failure to stimulate, encourage and cultivate the pride and ambition latent in the child.

School days cover the most important period in one's life. It is the wonder age of character building, and when the disposition and traits of character are so shaped and directed as to control the make-up of the future man or woman, unless at this important period of life habits of industry be inculcated, and incentives to action be taught and encouraged, the subtle influence of ease, rest, and comfortable surroundings, the seductive influence of habitual inactivity, will establish habits of idleness that time will never overcome; a careless, indolent, disposition so formed and established as to prove a curse to the possessor! A boy or girl possessing the average, natural ability, with industrious habits and what is called a liberal education, which all of our public schools afford, is fully equipped for the battles of life; but without the industry and a firm will, with purpose to back it, the individual is a failure, society worsted, and the State disappointed in one of its subjects.

To learn is to labor. You will say that to acquire an education is evidence of industry. This may be true, as to the labor, but the labor is often compulsory, and when coercion ceases the power is lost, and so without industry, application, and purpose to utilize the knowledge gained, the individual grows develops into that most despicable of nonentities, a negative quantity in the body politic.

To be industrious implies an ever present, living, innate disposition as well as vital force impelling one involuntarily to the prompt performance of every duty, the fulfillment of every obligation, and a sweet readiness to meet every requirement.

If one does not possess this disposition, naturally endowed, then it is necessary to acquire it, for it is the very foundation stone of hopes and future prospects. One must start early and keep going, never to waste, in sleep, the pure fresh hours of the brilliant morning! Sleep is nature's sweet restorer; and it is incumbent to recuperate mind and body, but excessive indulgence enfeebles the mind, impairs the physical strength, and is waste of time in the spiritual life. The farmer, the mechanic, the business man, the professional coteries, the student, indeed every man, woman, and child, are better for the fresh, invigorating air of the early day, duties self-implied and as righteously imposed.

It is an utter impossibility to instill ideas of great achievement into the minds of lazy, indolent pupils, who sit and stare at you, incapable of appreciating the earnest dictation of the instructor, who may as well be "casting pearls before swine." These idle scholars may evolve into an Edison or Copperfield, but the transitions are few and far between.

I have tried all manner of persuasive powers, including "capital punishment," as the boy said, but all to no purpose, and so have been compelled to leave them at the foot of the alphabet, trusting that perhaps, between the plow shares, the gift of climbing into the realms of mystery would be granted the ignorant soul.

When one considers the manifold temptations to which an idle, ignorant man, woman or child are submitted, it is wonderful how few escape the pitfalls of humanity, and I question whether it would be better for the majority of "these tramps" to die early than to cumber the highways with worthless trials of endurance! "It is far better to wear out than to rust out," and the teacher who inculcates lessons of thrift, industry, indomitable will power, perseverance, and determination to endure, even through suffering, will accomplish more than a general who captures a city, and the very secret of success will crown the beauty of accomplishing immortal good.

CONTEST CLOSES APRIL 29TH.

The contest inaugurated by The Herald as to what two of Kentucky's sons should be honored by having their statues placed in the Hall of Statuary will close on Saturday, April 29th.

In this contest The Herald offered $25 in four prizes—one of $10, one of $7.50, one of $5, one of $2.50—to those students in Kentucky colleges or public schools who name the two men, who are selected by the majority of all those not students who express an opinion as to what two men should be so honored. The purpose of The Herald in initiating this contest and in offering these prizes was to arouse interest in the study of the lives of Kentucky's dead sons who served well their country and reflected honor on their State.

We ask every one who sees in any selection to give the reasons why, in his judgment, the two men he names should be honored above other disting'lished dead. We hope a large number of the people of Kentucky will express their preference, and that in each and every school in the State attention will be called to this contest that the students may have their interest directed to the study of the history of the State and of the times during which Kentucky had a world-wide fame as the birth place and home of great men.

No selection will be considered in determining the result of the contest which is not received by the 20th of April, and the prizes will be awarded to those who make the first selections.

We again ask the papers of the State to call attention to this contest and hope that it may result in reviving to a certain extent a knowledge of and an admiration for those to whom Kentucky and the world owe so much.—From The Lexington Herald, April 16.
